

Randolph (Randy) Rawiszer
District Governor 2009-10
Rotary International District 6980

Randy Rawiszer is a New York City native and has been a Floridian since 1990. After many years in the retail clothing business, Randy started his own custom tailored clothing business, Bull & Bear Clothiers. Randy currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Custom Tailors & Designers Association of America, the oldest active trade association in the United States. Randy was responsible for the manufacture and distribution of the official District Governor's Theme Jackets at the 2003, 2004 and 2008 Rotary International Assembly.

Randy is a past president of The Rotary Club of Orlando East (2001-2002) and is a current member of The Rotary Club of Sanford. He has served District 6980 as District Secretary, District Trainer, District Designated Funds Administrator and has chaired the District Conference, Membership, Standard Operating Procedures, Foundation-Alumni and Foundation-Humanitarian Grants committees.

Randy was honored in 2004-2005 by the Sanford Rotary Club as Club Rotarian of the Year and by District 6980 as District Rotarian of the Year.

Randy is a multiple Paul Harris Fellow, Bequest Society member and Benefactor. He was in the first graduating class of the Rotary Leadership Institute for District 6980 and currently serves RLI as a faculty member, throughout the RLI Sunshine Division.

Randy is a member of the Orlando Area Committee on Foreign Relations, Florida Citrus Sports and Lake Mary Toastmasters. He also served for five years on the Board of Trustees of the Congregation of Reform Judaism in Orlando, where his wife, Jacqueline Rawiszer serves as Cantor.

Randy and Jacki (also a Paul Harris Fellow) live in DeBary, Florida. Jacki is also very active within the Central Florida community and beyond, serving on a variety of boards and committees for several vocational and civic organizations.
